that the speeches made a good impression on the crowd, and stirred the Democrate up to even more vigorous action than they have exercisel in the past.

The most intelligent of those pris en', said that Johnston is entirely safe for our ticket; that Bill Smith before leaving, had abandoned all hope of carrying the county, and that his and Young's canvass helped Jarvis and Davis immeasurably in Johnston. Let our friends there neither slumber nor sleep until it is established beyond a peradventure that our majority in the county will be a

The Granville Conspiracy Case.

We understand that the case of Cole and Jones, Commissioners of Granville County, Jones, the Treasurer of the County, and J. C. S. Lumsden, Esq., of this city, indicted in Granville Court, for conspiracy, came up in the Superior Court, of that county, at Oxford, last Thursday. A jury was empanneled by noon, Friday, and the case proceeded. Only one witness was examined during the afternoon, and the trial was to have gone on, yesterday. There was a severance as to the case of Mr. Lumsden, who was represented by Messrs. Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, of this city, and he was subprenaed as a witness against the Commissioners and Treasurer.

Says He Will Indict Them.

It has been noticed that two or three weeks ago, when Bill Smith got up at the Meadows Township, in Johnston county, to make a speech a crowd of young men surrounded him with horns and kept up such an infernal blowing as to prevent him from speaking. He is making numerous votes in Johnston (in a horn) by swearing in his wrath that he will have every one of them indicted for it and prosecuted, but it don't scare worth a cent; the young men say he can just blow his horn and go on with his suit.

Death of Rev. Dr. Hooper.

The death of this emineut divine, scholar, writer and educator occurred at the residence of his son iu-law, Prof J. D. B. Hooper, at Chapel Hill, on yesterday morning. He returned from the Centennial, where he had been by special invitation to deliver an address, and spent a few days in this city, preaching on the Sabbath for Dr. Pritchard, who was absent He seemed then to be stronger and more vigorous than he had been fo some years. But he was taken violently sick, immediately and reaching Chapel Hill, and lingering for short time, passed away. His life had been that of an educa tor. Graduatiog at the State University, he afterwards filled a Professorship in that Institution. While there, he preached a sermon on the force of habit, which had the honor of being read before each senior class up to the breaking out of the late war. He was a profe sor in the University of South Carolina for several years; then President of Wake Forest College, and afterwards of the Baptist Female Institute at Mufreesboro. The last position he resigned soon after the commencement of the war. After the close of that struggle he taught for a few years at Wilson. He was a fine scholar, especially in the department of belles letters, an elegant writer and a christian of singular purity of life and catholicity of spirit. He was upwards of eighty years of age.

A Hard Head. Yesterday morning, some parties were standing on Fayetteville street, in front of the market house, when they noticed a darkey, Clay Brown, who is employed on the Mahler building, just opposite, come down to a pile of pressed bricks in front of the new building, put 18 of them on a board, set the board on top of his head, and walk with this load to the third story of the building, without putting his hands to it from the time he put it up until he got ready to take it down! The spectators, as a matter of curiosity, went across the street and weighed one of the bricks, which pulled down 6 pounds. Thus the weight which the darkey had carried on his head to the top of a three story building, was matter very were said to man the he could carry 20 bricks in this way as easily as 18.

The Market.

During the past week the marke: has been bountifully supplied with everything that is in season. Wagons and carts have come from many adjoining counties, and there has been no cause to complain of lack of anything. What has been sold, too, has been, generally speaking, of good quality. Mr. J. A. Harris, Clerk of the Market, condemned a beef, yesterday morning, because too poor, but this is the only poor stock that has been in the market during the week. The place presented an animated scene, last evening, as the crowd moved to and fro in it, making their purchases. The market is now lighted, and well lighted, with oil, and thus is effected a great saving in expense, the oil costing almost nothing as compared with gas.

Some Missing Property Found.

Some valuable manuscript which was in a valise which was stolen from the residence of Mr. Johnstone Jones, some nights ago, has been found on the Releigh & Gaston Railroad, near the depot, and returned to him. Quite a quantity of it is, however, still missing, and with it, numbers of other articles which werestolen at the same time. If the remainder of the stolen property is returned to Mr. Jones, at this office, or at his residence, corner Jones and Harrington streets, and a clue is given, likely to lead to the capture of the burglar, a liberal reward will be given there-

Compliment to Gen. Cox.

The Wilson Advance, in reference of the speech of Gen. W. R. Cox, of this city, at Nash Court, says: ' Gen. Cox followed Capt. Davis, and made an able and telling speech. He is very popular in this county, and his speech was one of the best we have heard during the campaign." The Advance adds, and very truthfully : "There is no truer or more self sacrificing patriot in North Carolina than W. R. Cox, and the people of the whole State will long remember his patriotic and zealous efforts in their behalf."

Honors to Our Candidates.

A correspondent at Salisbury writes us that the wife of Mr. Geo. Monroe, of Franklin Township, Rowan county, gave birth, last Thursday night, to three fine boys, which at last accounts were doing well. Mr. Monroe, a staunch Conservative, named them respectively, Vance, Tilden and Hendricks.

Our correspondent adds: "Robbins returned last night, and will soon be on the war-: ath. He is the greatest political revivalist in the State."

NEWS FROM FOWLE.

His Speech at Morganton-Great Out-pouring of the People-Burke Court. MORGANTON, Avg. 16, 1876.

Mr. Editor : - Morganton was agog to-day. The streets were lined with people from Caldwell, McDowell, Mitchell Catawbs, Lincoln, Rutherford and this county, hear Hon.

Daniel G. Fowle. The Superior

Court of this county now in session, Judge J. L. Herr presiding;

he adjourned Court at 12 o'clock, to allow Judge Fowle to pp. k. Immediately after adjournment, the Court House was filled-crowded to its utmost-and quite a n mider of ladies occuried seats inside the bar. To show a sign of this campaign, I will state that quie a miniber of colored people were present.

I could tell from his countenance that Judge Fowle felt gool at seeing such a vast crowd. He was listened to with the most profound silence and the strictest attention, and was often applauded.

The Judge spoke of the two great political parties that had entered the contest-the bloody shirt being the banner of the Radicals, while on the banner of the great Democratic party was inscribed: the Constitution, Retrenchment, Reconciliation and Reform. He spoke of the great issues of the day, of the Radical oppression and negro domination, and made a strong appeal to the people of the West to go and rescue the down-trodden and oppressed people of the East. Everybody was pleased beyond conception, and several of the prominent gentlemen told me that the Judge's speech would add greatly to the majority of this county. Everybody is anxious for him to go farther West, and the appeals were so strong that he made additional appointments to-day. Among the prominent gentlemen here in attendance at Court, I can mention Hon, Geo. V. Strong, of Raleigh, William H. Bailey, R. Y. McAden and R. M. Oates, of Charlotte, Col. John F. Hoke, of Lincoln, Judge C. A. Cilley, and Col. G. N. Folk, of Caldwell, Lieut. Governor Armfield, of Statesville, Chief Justice Pearson, and Col. J. M. McCorkle, of Salisbury.

After the speaking, I met 'Squire W. R. Airen, of Icard Station. He his section and the Radicals are trembling in their boots.

The Tilden and Vance Club at Icard's number one hundred and sixty-five. The Squire is a great supporter of and firmly believer in the NEWS, and says if he lives one hundred years he intends to take it.

Judge Fowle has made a fine impression here as at all the other places where he has spoken, and is doing work for our cause. I send you a number of subscribers to day. The News is the paper that these people believe in.

Raleigh High School.

The second annual session of this school, under its present organization, begins to-morrow. Regarding it as the continuation of the school first opened by Mr. Scott alone, it will complete the third year of its existence with the close of the Fall Term in Fecember. During this period the school has continued to grow in favor with its patrons generally. It has now several pupils in advanced stages of preparation for college, not a few of whom, as we hope, are destined soon to aid in restoring the glories of our own University. One representative of the school has already entered there, a son of President Battle, who having passed his examinations for entrance with great credit, has taken a high stand in his class. The principals have reduced their terms in the boarding department to suit the necessities of the times. The charges for tuition, which remain as heretofore, are sufficiently moderate to satisfy any who wish for good work at a fair compensation. The prospects are good for a full a tendance at the opening, and the principals, having carefully digested and re-arranged their courses of instruction during the vacation, enter upon the labors of the session with strong hope of increased success.

Appointments of Maj. Engelhard and Col. Kenan.

A letter received in this city, yesterday, from Maj. J. A. Engelhard our candidate for Secretary of State, ays that he will speak on the 24th at Swansboro, Onslow county, on the 25 h at LaGrange, Lenoir county, and on the 26th at Snow Hill, Greene county. On Sunday, 27th, he and Col. Kenan leave Goldsboro for the Western part of the State, and address the people in the counties of Alleghany, Surry, Stokes, Yadkin, Forsythe, Alexander, Iredell, Davie, Davidson, Guilford, Raudolph, Chatham, Moore Montgomery, Stanly, Upion, Apson, Richmond, Cumberland, Harnett, Johnston, Sampson and Duplin. The appointments will extend through the month of September. The speakings will not in all cases be at the county seats.

A Personal Collision.

A young man who keeps books on Plilingington at reat went out visiting coming on, and thinking to escape it, jumped out and rushed up street. The blackness of darkness prevailed in the streets, and as ill luck would have it, another man was running to escape the rain. The two met in the middle of the pavement; there was the sound of a collision : the noise of the footfalls was hushed, and two men fell back with a groan apiece, and rolled into the gutter. The young book-keeper had over his right eye, yesterday, the map of third ward, with the streets and boundaries marked as with blue ink. The other man has not since been heard of, but as a dead man can't cuss, the book-keeeper is sure that he wasn't killed.

Death of Maj. J. H. Gee.

The papers bring information of the death of Maj. J. H. Gee, of Quincy, Florida. During a part of the late war, he commanded the post at Salisbury, and being charged with cruelty to Federal prisoners, was tried in this city after the surrender, by a Federal Court Martial. Many of the citizens of Raleigh remember the circumstances of this trial, and the long and weary days of suffering which he endured in prison here. He was a high-toned, honorable gentleman, and many of the people of North Carolina will receive with regret the news of his death.

Consolidation of Districts. The National Republican, of Friday, received yesterday, gives a long list of consolidations of Internal Revenue Districts. From this, we gather that the Fourth and Fifth Districts of North Carolina are combined, and Isaac J. Young is retained as Collector, the Sixth and Seventh (Dr. Mott's and Pickney Rollins') are consolidated, Collector not yet determined upon. We venture to say It will be Dr. Mott; they can't get him out; it has been tried.

Examining the City.

Policeman Goodwin is still engaged in touring the city, in search of filth of all kinds. Mayor Manly, recognizing the importance of proper sanitary regulations, has had him engaged regularly in this work for some time past. Persons can assist him very materially, and thus pro_ mote the health of the city, by reporting to him any localities which they may deem need looking after,

Taken Suddenly Sick.

We understand that on Tuesday, while holding Nash Court, Judge Watts was taken suddenly and severely ill with something like either paralysis or meningitis, the affection being in the back of the head and neck. Court was adjourned, and Judge Watts was conveyed to his home at Franklinton by Geo. W.

A Bound Boy on the Hunt of His Mother.

In 1866 when Dan Castello, the showman, was in the city, a woman by the name of Edyann Todd, bound to him her little son, who was then years of age, to be trained as a musician. Col. Ed. Graham Haywood drew up the papers, giving to Castello the control of the boy until he was 18 years old. The showman gave the lawyer $25 for this work, put a new suit of clothes on the boy, and started off with him. Nothing has since been heard of the little fellow. until a day or two ago, when officer Wm. C. Parker, of the police force, (who, in 1866, was Chief of Police,) received a letter from him, dated Mobile, Ala., stating that he is now 17 years of age, and that Dan Cas-tello had broken the written contract between them. He wants to know if Castello is still alive, and what has become of his mother. The boy now goes by the name of Marcellus Mc-Ras. If this should meet the eye of his mother, Elyann Todd, as be gives her name, she will learn something to her interest by communicating with policeman Parker or M. F. Kelly, a torney at law, Mobile, Alabama.

Electors of the Seventh District.

Our correspondent who has been traveling with the gubernatorial candidates, met W. B. Glenn, Esq., at Winston last Thursday. He is the Tilden and Hendricks elector of the Seventh District, and he and Dr. Jones, the Hayes and Wheeler elector, will commence the canvass this week. Mr. Glenn is a brother-inlaw of Judge Settle, but is giving to Gov. Vance a cordial support, and will make it very warm for Dr. Jones before this campaign is ended.

The Georgia Cotton Gin.

Messrs R F. Jones & Co., agents for the celebrated Georgia Cotton Gin, advertise it in another column. It is an invention which has acchieved a reputation second to none of its kind in the United States, and its claims are entitled to the careful consideration of farniers and others who have any intention of investing in a gin. It can be seen at the store Messes Jones & Co., where the purchaser can examine it for himself.

terest, comes from the machine of Capt. Dossey Battle, the genius who presides over the columns of the Tarboro Southerner:

As the bark cleaves to the tree, So sticks to rads, young Fab Busbee. To counteract the Stray horn's tootin', We put against him elector Wooten. No other man so pure and brave is, As the immortal Josephus Davis. He'll place the young man under the sod, 'Peace to his ashes-may he rest with God.'

A Watermelon Feast.

After the street force had finished work, yesterday afternoon, Street Commissioner Andrews took them all down to Mr. R. H. Bradley's store, and "set up" watermelons. It was a beautiful and exhilarating sight to watch the horney-handed sons of toil, as they squatted about over the pavement and gutters, and smiled their delight through the juice which dripped fromthe corners of their months.

Attempt at Housebreaking. Night before last a burglarious attempt was made upon the house of Mr. J. M. Betts, of this city. The servant girl heard a noise at a window of the cook room, and getting up, turned up the lamp, and went to the window. The noise ceased and no more was heard of it. Yesterday morning, the nall which held the window down, was bent, showing that an effort had been made to raise the sash.

The Piedmont Air-Line, the Great Southern Dispatch Line, and the Virginia and Tennessee Air Line, all of which are running in connection with the Old Dominion Steamships, have decided to advance their rates from New York to all points in North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee.

No Doubt of It.

We have received further news concerning the withdrawal of Judge Thomas, of Newbern, from the Republican party. There is no doubt of it whatever. He has come squarely out from the party, and will certainly support Vance and Tilden Still there is room, and other accessions will be hai'ed.

Ransom Pool caught a sturgeon eight feet two inches in length, at Pool's mill mouth of Balout creek. where it empties into the Neuse, about six miles from this city, and sold it, yesterday, to J. A. CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS IN OTHER

THE death of Rev. Dr. Hooper is announced. A notice of it appears upon our local page.

In 1868, the Republicans "lost, $160,000 of the school fund. Yet they prate of Pool's defalcation !

PRODUCE that letter, Mr. Postmas ter Hubbs. It was placed in your office. It has hever reached the Raleigh office.

THE Democrats have saved the people thirty millions of dollars on the appropriations for a single year. Four years of such economy would save to the country One Hundred and Twenty Millions.

JUDGE SETTLE bids for votes from these three sources mainly-negroes, deserters, and Ku-Klux. How do "Ku-Klux" relish being classed with negroes and deserters; or deserters with colored folks?

ALFRED PIKE, the man who put a woman's thumb under the fencelock during the war, to make her testify against her husband, was arrested by order of Governor Vance. and indicted for the offence.

THE best-loved man in North Caroliaa-Zebulon B. Vance. If Judge Settle persists in his present course of misrepresentation, as indicated by our correspondence from the west, he will stand some chance of being the best hated man in the State.

THE man who maltreated a woman in Randolph during the war, was arrested by order of Gov. Vance. If he was not prosecuted, the fault lay with Solicitor Settle as much as with Gov. Vance. But neither were at fault, as the fellow fled the State.

TROOPS FOR THE SOUTH.

Since the publication of the order of President Grant to General Sherman concerning the use of troops in the Southern States, there can be no doubt that the bayonet policy is once more to be tried on us. The Republicans of this State are attempting to deny that such is to be the Southern Presidential tactics. The New North State affects to hoot at the idea of troops being used in North Carolina to intimidate voters.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, one of the most thoroughly reliable at the seat of government, says: "it is now proposed to go further than ever before in the matter of using the troops for political purposes. There are but four Southern States in which there are now Republican executives, North Carolina, South Carolina, Lou isiana and Florida. It is not to be apprehended that from any of the other States there will be a call of the constituted authorities for federal interference. But the language of Secretary Cameron to General Sherman that the troops are to be used to 'assist' in preserving order indicates that the contingency is contemplated of interfering in the internal concerns of the States, irrespective of their own authorities."
The New York Herald, which professes impartiality in such matters, says that "the order from Secretary Cameron to General Sherman shows that the administration has had a very definite use to make of these troops all the time, and we at once see why Crook and Terry have been deliberately left without adequate support. It is expected that the five regiments will carry four of the Southern States, by whipping the negroes into line who have either become listless in politics or wandered off to the Democracy, and by terrifying the 'fiendish' white liners into subjection. By keeping the outrage mill slowly grinding, and sending platoons of cavalry hither and thither, it is evidently hoped to revive the bitterness which has been rapidly disappearing between the races in most parts of the South." That such is the Administration policy, is indisputable. We print elsewhere a statement showing the distribution of the troops in the South. There are now 138 companies, amounting in the aggregate to about 7,000 men, scattered over the various Southern States-more soldiers than are employed in the Sioux war.

Such employment of the federal forces is an evidence of lawlessness, despotism and utter disregard of the spirit of our institutions and the letter of our law that may well arouse grave apprehensions among the Americans who hate military tyr-

The New York Herald's communitation and this early unfolding of the plot to carry Southern States for the Republican ticket, will be very apt to over-reach itself, as it is not possible that it will be sustained by the people of the North, more especially as the inference is, from the words of Secretary Cameron, that his present order is to be followed by new acts of usurpa-

The Herald says: "We wish to see all citizens protected in their rights, but this turning of the army of the United States into bands of drummers for the negro vote is push. ing partizanship so far that it would be grotesque if it were not infamous. This is doubtless the work to which General Sherman referred when he said the 'bignest authority' must answer why the troops could not be spared to fight the Sioux. The desperation of a move which dares to saddle the country with the expense of extra soldiers while keeping nearly four thousand idle for political purposes is apparent, and adds another stigma to the rule of the party in whose name and for whose aid it is anblushingly done."

Let the Republicans of North Carolina put that in their pipes and smoke it. Its value as a condemnation of the Adminisfration policy is enhanced by the fact that it comes from an impartial source.

THE CARPET-BAGGERS AND THE TROOPS.

The following remarks occur in the last number of the New North State -the most decent perhaps of the Republican papers of the State:

It is gravely charged that Mr. Keogh has been to see the President, to induce him to retain the troops that are now in North Carolina for election purposes. The statement that Mr. Keogh has said anything to the President about troops, or oldiers, for any purpose, either to be 'retained" in or brought to North Carolina, or to any other place, is absolutely false, and besides is a most stupid lie.

That is Radical assertion. Now for fact. All the statements and comments in the Democratic papers of North Carolina are based upon the following Associated Press dispatch.

from Washington, August 7, 1876: "Tuos. B. Keogh. Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of North Carolina, has had two interyiews with the President; and one with the Secretary of War. Keogh, who is also a member of the Republican National Executive Committee, has for his supposed object to expostulate against the removal of troops which the Indian war makes imperative." Now, who tells the lie, the Assoclated Press Agent at Washington. the Democratic Press of North Carolina, or the New North State? We are content to abide the judge ment of any candid reader of the SOLDIERS IN THE CAROLINAS .-North and South Carolina are among the States that Grant says the Republicans ought to carry. The N. Y. Herald states that the following is the distribution of troops in these two States:

NORTH CAROLINA. Raleigh-Companies D and E, Second artillery. Fort Macon-Company L, Second ar-Fort Johnson-Company M. Second artillery.

SOUTH CAROLINA. Charleston-Companies E and F, Fifth artillery.
Columbia—Campanies B, C, G and H,

Eighteenth infantry.
Yorkville—Company D, Eighteenth infantry.
Aiken—Companies F and I, Eighteenth infantry.
Greenville-Company K, Eighteenth

infantry. For "Fort Johnson," Old Fort was probably meant. Most of these soldiers are Democrats; and their presence among us is not objectionable. A few thousand more of the same sort, would serve to strengthen the Democratic cause. Of course, the negroes will vote with the Kadicals anyhow; and such white men as can be scared into the Radical ranks by a few blue coats, we neither rely upon nor want at all. The Republicans are welcome to all such fools or cowards. So the military, we think, will avail our desperate and despicable adversaries nothing in the Carolinas.

REPUBLICAN TRIBUTE TO A DEM-OCRATIC HOUSE,-The New York Tribune, Republican, in an article on the late session of Congress, says necessarily it could do little in the way of positive legislation, since the Republican Senate and Democratic House on the eve of a Presidential election were even more than usually sure to work at cross purposes, and adds: "But it has made a success in three directions. It exposed a corrupt Secretary of War, and drove him from office. It investigated an unscrupulous minister to England, and scourged him home. It reduced appropriations sometimes wisely, often unwisely; but at all events it reduced them, and so, for the present, checked the enormous expenditures of public money. For these let this Congress have all thanks; and let us frankly say, too, that the whole credit of them is due to the Democratic House."

THE CHAPIN CHARGE.—It will be remembered that a year or so ago Dr. Chapin, of Chatham, charged Collector Young, Radical candidate for Congress in this District, with being defaulter. At the Silk Hope speaking several days ago, Mr. Rencher asked Dr. Chapin for the grounds of his charge, and the latter gave as his -e'wame ur Beach.

Is it true that Col. Isane J. Young is a defaulter? We would do him no injustice; but this matter should be cleared up. He is before the people seeking their suffrages for a very high and responsible position, one that is now most worthily filled. If Mr. Young is innocent of the Chapin charge, he has been vilely slandered. If he be guilty-and we trust that he is not-Congress is the last place that he should be sent to.

A BRACE OF CELESTIAL GONG-BEATERS'-Col. Isaac J. Young and Maj. Richard C. Badger-Ike and Dick-have been on the rampage in Chatham, as appears from our correspondence this morning. They have put on their war-paint, and propose to scare voters into the Republican ranks. How else cau we interpret Col. Young's parade of his courage; and Maj. Badger's statement that if Tilden and Hendricks were elected only by the aid of Mississippi and Louisiana he was afraid to say what the result would be? They are only carrying out the Radical programme of intimidation, fixed up at Washington. They are like Chinese warriors, beating gongs to frighten their enemies. The absurdity of the thing is as apparent as its malicious partisan motive. Such tricks of intimidation are ridiculous. Chatham voters will not scare "worth a cent"

AT Yadkinville, Judge Settle stated that the Statesville crowd cheered five minutes for Jeff Davis." Our correspondent, who was present at the Statesville meeting, and being a reporter was likely to be accurate about this matter, says that this assertion of Judge Settle's is "as gross a falsehood as he ever uttered." Come, Thomas, Thomas, don't follow Col. Isaac J. Young's advice. It is unbecoming in an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to depart thus from the line of truth. Our correspondent says "a drunken man cheered once for Jeff Davis, but drew from the crowd no manifestation of applause."

THE New York Herald says, "it is a wasteful absurdity to maintain idle soldiers in the South while we are prosecuting an active campaign against the Indians with an insufficient force." That is so. But, does the Herald reflect that Indian sealps are not worth as much to the Administration as ballots?

YESTERDAY We spoke of Mr Orlando Hubbs as sheriff of Craven, and Postmaster at Newberne. This is a mistake. The Postmaster is not Orlando but Ethelbert Hubbs. Although seperate individuals they are one in iniquity.

THE statement of the Associated Press, in the despatches sent South from Washington, August 7, to the effect that Thomas B. Keogh, of this State, interviewed Grant and asked for troops for the South, is denied by Keogh's orgat, the New North State, of Greensboro, in its last issue. Will the Associated Press Agent at Washington give us the proof?

THE Bostot Post thus briefly shows why he Democratic parcy should go into power in all the Southern States : " Arkansas has for two years been in the control of its own people, and there is peace and prosperity : South Carolina has been in carpet bag hands for eleven years, and scenes like that at Hamburg are still possible."

IT is stated that as Settle finished speaking at Yorkinville, a Radical striker went are nd in the crowd and induced quite a number of those present to leave, the purpose of the Radical leaders being to prevent the file of their party from hearing Gov. Vance's speech. "They feer the light because their deets are evil."

WILL Judge Settle explain to his colored brethren, the Republican Freedmen's Savings Bank swindle? There is edification in the explanation: and as a faithful leader of the blind he should tell them the whole truth.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Judge Settle is such an ardent admirer of Grant that he has named one of his boys Grant.

Col. Cad. Jones, fermerly of this State, was one of the five tice-presidents of the State Democratic Convention of South Carolina

Capt. Q. V. Johnson has been permanently appointed Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railway, the appointment taking place August 16th. Reidsville Times and Mercury: "Stop seeking office and let office seek you. Good advice. But it is very rare that the cow comes up to be milked. In the recent canvass in Davidson county, on the amendments, Mr. J. A.

Leach, of Thomasville, made his mark as an able and effective speaker. Don Carlos bathes every day at Newport, where the ladies watch him disporting in the surf, and consider the muscular development of his legs as superior to even that of Weston's. They attribute it to the exercise he took in getting at present engaged in a newspaper controversy on the unwritten history of President Taylor's administration of 1850. Distribe in order. It was said of the late Archbishop Cor.-

nolly, of Halifax, by the Rev. George Grant, a Presbyterian minister in that locality, "He was a man of peace, ever seeking to build bridges rather than dig ditches between men of different creeds. Was ever a nobler eulogy passed on any POLITICAL NOTES.

What the country wants at this time is about ten thousand well armed and mounted peace commissioners.

It is evident that Gov. Tilden's letter of acceptance is exercising a powerful influence throughout the country.

Greensboro Patriot: White radicals become indignant when the radical party in the South is designated as the negro party. Take the negroes out of it and what is left? Not substance enough to make a shadow.

The New York Times, frightened by the woful condition of the Republican party of Indiana, as reported by its special correspondent, complains that the National Republican Committee is making no effort to arouse enthusiasm for its nominees in that State.

Wilmington Journal: The game was plain one. In the Convention, white radicals voted for the amendments to satisfy the better portion of the handful of the handful of white men who belong to their party; out of the Convention they protest against them to satisfy the ne-

Richmond Enquirer: President Grant's nessage assuming the right to withhold moneys appropriated by Congress for internal improvements, whenever he may think the interests of the country demand it, is one of the most impudent electioneering tricks a president has ever been guilty of.

The effects of bad government in South Carolina are vividly presented by Dr. Ensor, Superintendent of the State Insane Asylum, who says: "The time has arrived when the inmates of that institution must receive assistance or starve. The institution is largely in debt, its credit is gone, and parties who have been furnishing beef, bread, milk, etc., have given notice that they can no longer continue to supply these articles unless there is some guarantee given them that they will be paid."

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Randolph Regulator: Col. Wm. A. Smith, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, says he now goes for the Union. He went for deserters during the war, and is going for money now.

Winston Seutinel : J. C. Buxton, Esq., returned home last Saturday from a trip the Western part of the State. He brings the most cheering news from beyond the mountains, and says that Vance will gain more than 3,000 over Merrimon's vote four years ago.

[Christian Guardian.] The brothers, John and Charles Wesley, with Richard Pilmore, were one evening holding a twilight meeting on the common, when they were attacked by a mob, and fled from its fury for their lives. The first place of refuge that they found, after having been for some time separated, was a hedge-row near at hand, behind which they hid a few minutes, protecting themselves from serious injury by the missiles that fell like bail about them, by clasping their hands above their heads, as they lay with their faces in the dust. As night drew on, the darkness enabled them to seave their temporary retreat for a safer one at some distance. They found their way at last to a spring house, where, in comparative security, they waited for their pursuers to weary of seeking them. "Here they struck a light with a flint stone," dusted their soiled and tattered garments, and after quenching their thirst, bathed their hands and faces in the water that bubbled from the spring and flowed away in a sparkling streamlet. Then it was that Charles Wesley was inspired to write "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," with a bit of lead which he had hammered into a pencil. These circumstances beautifully illustrated the hymn, giving to almost every line a reality that makes it peculiarly significant to every loving Christian heart. They had fied be-fore their enemies, and found shelter from danger. He sang:

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul,
Let me to Thy fost m fly." U. S. Soldiers in the South.

Ineberiate Asylum for Women. One of the most noticeable of recent charitable movements consists in the establishment at Binghamton, N. Y. of an inebriate asylum for women. It is not a branch of the large state institution located in Binghamton, but is a "private" establishment, as such an institution for women surely should be, and is in charge of Susan J. Tabor, M. D., who is fully quali-fied for the work she has undertaken. The New York World says:

Doctor Taber announces that she is prepared to treat women (only) "who are suffering from the effects of opi-um and alcohol." Opium stands first, probably because in the class likely to patronize "Temple Home" there are more victims of the opium habit than there are dipomaniacs. Indeed, the habit of first taking morphine or other preparations of the drug, to induce sleep or allay pain, has made the confirmed opium-eaters among women far outnumber those of the other sex. Druggists in this city and elsewhere say that "ladies" are their best customers, and so they are of the soda fountains, which dispense liberal "sticks" upon order, women resorting to such places for the stimulant that men can procure in any bar-room. It is a fact that there is a frightful and yearly increasing number of female tipplers even in "our best society," and for these and for the opium-eaters the new and possibly much needed, institu-tion is opened.

A History of Lane A few of the ex members of the 33d N. C. Regiment, held an informal meeting in this place a few days ago and rothing can be started without some one taking the matative, for the purpose of compiling a sistory of the brigade. Maj. Jas. H. Harris, of Charlotte, was elected President, and John W. Happoldt, of Morganton, Secretary. The object is to gather, not only the statistics and historical facts, but the amusing incidents. All the officers and privates of the 33d 7th, 28th, 37th and 18th Regiments which constituted the brigade, are information in their possession of every character. A circular will be sent to all the members of the brigade, and the only trouble is to get their address. The Secretary would be glad if the friends to the scheme would forward to him the address of every member of their respective companies .- Burke Blade.

si ting Bull Talks Nice-- About 10,-000 Hostiles.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 19 .- Sitting Bull replies, July 27th, to Major Mitchell. at For Peck : "Tell him I am coming before long to his post to ir.de. Tell him I did not commence; I am getting old. That I did not want to fight, but the whites rush on me and l am compelled to defend myself. That but for the soldiers stationed on Rosebud, I, with my people, would have been there before. That if I was assured of the protection of the Great Father, I would go to Fort Peck for the purpose of making peace. I and other Chiefs want the Black Hills abandoned, and we will make peace."

Medicine Cloud estimates the hostiles at from 8,000 to 10,000 fighting men. They are living entirely on meat, which is hard to get, owing to the close proximity of the whites. The hostile camp is now on Tongue River, south of the Yellowstone.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

The O. A. U. and the School Plank of the Republican Platform-Information Wanted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 .- Mr. Van Nortwick, a member of the New Jersey Senate, on behalf the order of the O. A. U, has addressed a long letter to Gov. Hayes, respecting the seventh plank of the Cincinnati platform. respecting public schools, and asks: "Was the seventh plank of the Cincinnati platform merely inserted to beguile the O. A. U., and similar organizations into the support of cerain party nominees? Is it only a delusion, a snare, a lie? Were the men who so uproariously greeted its reading in the Convention, only so many claquers, hired to get up a cheap demonstration?" and says the men of this organization have an interest in understanding whether the seventh plank of the Cincinnati plat form means business or otherwise. "If the resolution be a sham, a mere wordy exhalation, then they must bide their time; if, on the other hand, it means that the school question is a live issue in the present canvass, then they expect that the word will be passed to make the fight along the whole line, Until that word is given, and the movement begins in earnest, they will necessarily feel that they have no part or lot in the matter."

Bold Bank Robery in Texas, CINCINNATI, August 19.-A special to the Enquirer, dated St. Louis 18:h says: "A Dallas (Texas) special says that about one o'clock to-day two robbers entered the office of the State Savings Bank, on Main street, jumped over the counter and commencedan a tack on E. H. Grubt er, President of the bank. After felling him to the floor by a blow on the head with a navy revolver, they helped the nselves to what money they could find. They then ran into an alley where their horses were hitched and rode off. Mr. Grubber states that the loss will not exceed $200. He has offered a reward of $500 and the citizens bave increased the amount to $1,500, for the capture of the robbers.

Grant and Some of the Cabinet Absent-Removals and Suspensions. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.-The Presdent left Washington to-day for Long Branch. Several members of the Cabinet are also absent Captain Bancroft Gheradi, of the United States Navy, has been suspended for two years for punishing seamen contrary to law. Pay Inspector Spalding, who was on duty at San Francisco when his clerk, Pinney, absconded with government funds, has been dismissed from the service. Pay Inspector Jas. N. Carpenter, of the Navy, having been found guilty of neglect of duty, is suspended from rank and duty for five years.

Failure of Josiah Quincy-Attempt to Wreck a Train.

NEW YORK, August 19 .- The failure of Josiah Quincy is announced. His liabilities are $80 000; assets said to be $220,000.

An unsuccessful attempt was made last night to throw the express train via the Hoosac Turnel on the Fetchburg road, from the track, by placing ties on the rails.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. The Revenue Demagogue and the Rotating Solicitor. Mr. Editor-Col. Young and Maj. Badger spoke at Siik Hope, in this county, yesterday, to a mixed crowd of about one hundred, and were ally replied to by Messra. Moring and Rencher. Young is a miserable demagogue. From his antecedents we did not expect much, and we were not disappointed. Ir Chapin had charged upon him that he was a defaulter, and when Mr Rencher called upon the Doctor for his grounds, he gave, as his authority, a Washington detective by the name of Beach.

The Colonel indulated in sweeping charges against the whole Democratic ticket. His variations from the truth were as broad as his denunciations were sweeping. He invariably claimed to be a man of "courage," and the crowd understood that to mean a mild intimation to the medical Mr. Chapin to "stand from under."

Young will run considerably behind his ticket in Chatham. He had some revenue work done up here that he has never paid for. I state this upon the authority of one of the ag pieved parties. Mr. Badger started out to make a good Democratic speech. He directly contradicted Col. Young's charges against Governors Tilden and Headricks, and other leading Democrats. He endorsed all the amendments but two; and did not show his enimus until he reached the State ticket. He said it was an insult to Union men and deserters. That a man who deserted the army after '63 was not a deserter—that Vance put women in pens, &c., and wound up by saying. that if Tilden was elected only by the aid of Mississippi and Louisiane, he was afraid to say what the result would be. Such threats cannot frighten the Democrats of Chatham from their duty.

Mr. Rencher made an able and effective speech upon the issues of the campaign and the veracity of the Radical party; and Mr. Moring elo-duently pleaded for the negro-ridden counties of the East, and brought some home thrusts at the courageou "Colonel." The county is wild over the prospect of Vance on the 28th. CONSERVATIVE

SIR:—I am advised that C L. Harris, I sq., Superintendent of the United States ort House and Post Office Building at this place, in defending himself against some charge i referred at the Department, has this cay forwarded to you a parcel of affidavits and certificates of his friends, among which is one containing a reflection on myself in words to the effect that not ne here believes the charge against Mr. Harris, "set affoat by one Hea ne"

Theg to say that I have never "set affoat" any charges a painst Mr. C. 1., Harris. The charges left red to and the attributed to me, were originally made by Isaac J. Young, Internal Revenue Co lector of this districtant of the weet and are substantially, that, C. L. Harris, while halding an appointment as Designated Assistant Assessor of In eand Revenu, in 1872, defraued te government on false vouchers, or fandulant pay account, certified and swornt by the said C. L. Harris; and that the matter come-to the knowledge of him—to olicetor Young—as the disbursing officer who paid Harris on the frandulent pay accents referred to ·unts referred to

At the beginn ng of President Grant's second term, in March, 1873, C. L. Harrs was appointed and confirm d Col ector of Internal revenue to supercede Collect r Young. It was then that Mr Young made public these charges against Mr. Harris Though the efforts of Congressman Wm. A Smith, then representing this district, and others, Young was able to prevent a commission issuing to Harris, and Mr. Young has he d the position of Collector to the present time.

I respectfully refer you to the papers and records of your office for March, 187c, whe. e, you will, I presame, find filed the charges of Collector Young against C. L. Harris, Esq. In December last, Mr. . L. Harris, Esq. In December last, Mr. . L. I have the honor to enclose copy of corres I have the honor to enclose copy of correspondence between the Department and myself, and I beg to call specially your attention to paragraph marked "A" on page 15 and to paragraph marked "B" on page 19, wherein the conduct of Mr. Harris, as a pretended revenue officer, is referred to.

It is but just to you and myself that I should state in conclusion, that, having been mad the viceim of the corrupt combination of which C. L. Harris, Esq. appears to be a central figore, the alternative wapresented to me of standing by and endosing such infamy and corruption and notoriously corrupt tanh, or forming new political. riously corresponden, or forming new political ailiances; and find ng the republican party so far as my observation goes, here, hop lessly under the control and domina-tion of the most notoriously extupt men on earth, I have united myself with the on Carth, I have united myself with the Democrail parry.

I have, therefore, no personal interest in the removal of Super-intendent Harris; on the contrary, every mere political consideration of this campaign would inspire in me the hope that he may be retained in the prominent public position he now occupies.
